MISSOULA--

A free public lecture entitled "Sexual Violence Against Women in Art" will be presented by Harmony Hammond, painter and feminist activist from New York City, on Thursday at the University of Montana.

Hammond, a staff member on the feminist art magazine, "Heresies," will speak at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in room 404 of the UM Fine Arts Building.

The UM Department of Art is sponsoring Hammond's visit to the campus. She is among a number of visiting artists who will come to UM this quarter under the art department's sponsorship.
